

Name:

Period:

Date:

Ms. Lopez

Combine each of the following sentences using all five of the sentence coordination techniques.

(You are writing each sentence five times, once using each of the coordinating techniques, so I suggest typing so that you can use the copy & paste function.)

Example:

A tree fell during the storm. It knocked down several power lines.

A tree fell in the storm, and it knocked down several power lines.

A tree fell in the storm; it knocked down several power lines.

A tree fell in the storm where it knocked down several power lines.

When a tree fell in the storm, it knocked down several power lines.

A tree fell in the storm; accordingly, it knocked down several power lines.

1. The new television season has started. I don't like any of the new programs.
2. The front page of the newspaper reports the major happenings. The features section provides entertainment.
3. Many students complain about homework. Most students complete their homework daily.
4. The subway station provided route maps. We couldn't work the fare machine.
5. Our hockey team won the semifinals. We lost in the championship game.
6. Adam sleeps during the day. He works at night.
7. I put the library books in my backpack. I wouldn't forget to return them.
8. We conserved water. The drought raged on for over two years.
9. The streetlights went on. It was after nine o'clock.
10. It was a beautiful day. We played outside in the sunshine.